THE MAP

Fabric & Wallpaper Panels

A collection of prints based on an extraordinary Indian embroidery from the V&A Museum. A 19th century map of Srinagar, which took 30 years to embroider and is thought to be one of the most valuable textiles in the world.

A truly fitting project to celebrate Lewis & Wood's 30th anniversary.

- The MAP Maxi is 118" tall x 107" wide sold as 2 separate drops that join with 1cm seam allowance.
- The MAP Mini is 53 1/2" wide x 59" high.
- Both sizes available in 6 colourways shown on the back cover.

. UTOPIA

As part of the MAP collection we have developed UTOPIA, an easy-to-use repeat version of MAP Maxi. So cuttings for both designs are identical; same scale, same colouring, just a different repeat.

. BESPOKE SCALING

If you would like to order the MAP panel at a different scale for walling or curtains contact info@lewisandwood.com for more information.

- See the MAP in detail in the Videos section on our Home page.
